“ Even though I had not ever met Jacob I would very much like to light a candle in his memory. May God bless his beloved family members and dear friends with much comfort and peace during their time of grieving the loss of Jacob.

“ Jacob, I'm sorry I never got to meet you. If your anything like your granddad and grandmother I'm sure you were a wonderful caring person. Your going to love the place your moving to, and your going to see a lot of friends and family who went on before you. Maybe some day I'll get to meet you face to face. Until then may God watch over you and your family.
