“ I saw a name on TV that reminded me of my first real boyfriend so I put his name in and was saddened to see that he had passed away. My family moved to Boulder, Colorado at the end of our 9th grade yr. and I was not happy about leaving. He actually came to Boulder with a friend (had to get a date for his friend) to see me and we had a great time. He was in Boulder to see an aunt (I think) and contacted me and we had Lee and his first wife for dinner. That's when he said he was going by Lee instead of Marvin. I am very happy he was a wonderful man, great dad and husband. He was a very nice, kind young man and is still in my memories. I'm sure it's been very difficult for all of you. I'm getting the impression he knew the Lord...which is awesome. You may not even be checking this site, so may not see this. If you do and would like to talk my # is 719-248-1218. God Bless you Debbie (Leffler) Caldwell

“ My dad. My dad that taught me about patience. My dad that taught me about being humble. I can't say enough about this man and the immeasurable sacrifices he made for me. I wish I spent more time with you. I miss you. This is the hardest thing I've ever had to write. I wish I were there for you. I hope you're at peace. I love you.

“ Lee, my oldest brother! He and I could talk on the phone, cry together, laugh together tell each other anything! He taught me to say, "I love you!" every time we hung up on the phone or were together. Our love for each other was a love that I will never forget. He lived way too far away. We were best friends, and he will be missed. "I look forward to our reunion, don't forget my room needs to be right across the hall from you in heaven like it was at home."
