

Lorelyn Bascon Buhr

April 2, 1972 - January 9, 2020

Lorelyn was born on April 2, 1973 in the Philippines. After she completed college, she met her husband Kevin Buhr and moved to the US and continued with her education.

The Lord blessed Lorelyn and her husband Kevin with two children: Kyle and Brett. She accepted the Lord 19 years ago and was a faithful servant throughout her life. She served God everywhere she went telling anyone who would listen the good news of the gospel. She served in ministry at every church she attended. She recalled how her mother had required her to read the scriptures out loud and pray with her and did the same for her children. She kept God's word in her heart and knew that God's word was life.

She distinguished herself in everything she did, because an excellent spirit was in her like Daniel in the bible. She loved her family and devoted her life to giving them the best gift; God's word and all were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. She also served God through generous giving. She believed that everything she had belonged to God's kingdom. She supported missions, churches, the homeless, the sick, family and friends and thought of others before her own needs.

Her beautiful life will forever be cherished in the lives of her husband and children: Kevin, Kyle and Brett Buhr, and siblings: Nympha, Melita (deceased), Jocelyn, Lor (deceased), Paul, Gina, and Blanche: In-Laws, nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends.

Events

JAN Memorial Service 01:00PM - 02:00PM

14

Flower Mound Family Funeral Home

3550 Firewheel Drive, Flower Mound, TX, US, 75028

Comments

“ Tricia Nafus lit a candle in memory of Lorelyn Bascon Buhr

Tricia Nafus - January 14 at 05:04 PM

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of Lorelyn. She will be truly missed. She was a wonderful woman with kind and warm heart and was cherished by everyone who knew her. Praying for her family and kids.

Wei lu - January 14 at 02:29 PM

“ Traci Delacruz lit a candle in memory of Lorelyn Bascon Buhr

Traci Delacruz - January 13 at 06:50 PM

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Lorelyn. I worked with her for a few years, mostly communicating via email or the phone. I finally got the pleasure of meeting her face to face. Her kindness and vibrant spirit was evident in her voice and actions. She is now with the Lord, at peace and providing a continual service to the Lord. She will be watching down. May her husband, Kevin, and their 2 children find solemn and peace knowing how loved she was.

Jean Witt - January 13 at 01:29 PM

“ My deep condolences to Kevin and the boys for the passing on of your dear wife and great mom. Heaven has gained a true soldier of the Cross. The short time I met Lorelyn 3yrs ago in Dallas, it was evident she was a child of God. A generous giver. She sponsored orphaned children in Africa through our organization Beacon of Hope. At one time she wanted to go on a mission trip with us to Africa to meet the children.

That's how passionate she was to just be of service to God. During that time she shared with me that she was also sponsoring some pastors and helping build a church in her home country. She had no time to waste. We prayed together several times at work. She was not ashamed of the gospel at all. Well done my sister in the Lord and friend. To be absent from this body, to be present with the Lord. You fought a good fight, you kept the faith, you completed the race. Receive your reward for faithfulness to God. Praying for the family during this time of great separation.

Tariro Chabata, Beacon of Hope & Joy, Chicago

Tariro Chabata - January 13 at 12:41 PM

“ I'm deeply saddened by this sad news! Lorelyn was a great friend who had helped me grow so much in my faith. She was truly God's faithful servant! May the Lord receive her beautiful soul! Please accept my condolences! My prayers are with her family during this difficult time.

Karen Tieu (Virginia)

Karen Kim Tieu - January 13 at 11:48 AM

“ My deep condolences to Kevin and the boys for the passing on if your dear wife and great mom. Heaven has gained a true soldier of the Cross. The short time I met Lorelyn 3yrs ago in Dallas, it was evident she was a child of God. A generous giver. She sponsored orphaned children in Africa through our organization Beacon of Hope. At one time she wanted to go on a mission trip with us to Africa to meet the children.

That's how passionate she was to just be of service to God. During that time she shared with me that she was also sponsoring some pastors and helping build a church in her home country. She had no time to waste. We prayed together several times at work. She was not ashamed of the gospel at all. Well done my sister in the Lord and friend. To be absent from this body, to be present with the Lord. You fought a good fight, you kept the faith, you completed the race. Receive your reward for faithfulness to God. Praying for the family during this time of great separation.

Tariro Chabata, Beacon of Hope & Joy, Chicago

Tariro Chabata - January 13 at 12:30 PM

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Lorelyn. She was a true fighter and a positive spirit. She was always smiling and sharing cheerful messages with everyone. I am tremendously saddened by her loss and cannot imagine the emptiness her family is now feeling but at the same time, i am certain that their memories will be forever filled with joy and happiness she always diffused around her. We will keep Lorelyn in our hearts and memories and are blessed to have known her.

Nicolas Willig

Nicolas Willig - January 13 at 07:40 PM