

William Lee Nale Jr.

November 9, 1934 - April 18, 2019

William (Bill) Lee Nale, Jr. passed away unexpectedly on his drive home on April 18, 2019. Bill was born on November 9th, 1934 in Indianola, Oklahoma and attended the University of Oklahoma before entering the Air Force Officer Training School. Bill was a captain in the Air Force, flying a Phantom F4 and completed several tours of duty in Okinawa and Vietnam. After his military service, Bill lived and worked in Dallas TX and Clearwater FL. In retirement he was enjoying the good life living aboard his boat in San Diego Bay, California. A man of passion with a vagabond nature, Bill was propelled by the many joys in his life; including family, friends, politics, boating, reading, pursuing his Indian heritage, and of course dancing! He was energetic, charismatic, and fun loving, and though he leaves us too soon, we are blessed to have had him. Bill is survived by his children: Melodee, William III, Bart, Susan, Grant and Tiffany; his grandchildren: Caleb, Heather, Kelsey, Katelyn, Stacie, William IV, Cheyenne, Griffin, Kellan and Rhys; and Sisters Patricia and Jerry Ann. He is preceded in death by his mother Ethel and father William Sr.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Bill was always so full of life From the first time I met him and took him Water skiing in Minnesota to the last time I saw him dancing the night away at Heather and Andrew's wedding he was always so happy and energetic. I would bet he is currently organizing a social event in heaven now. He will be missed.

“ Bill was a kind and pleasant man who loved his grandchildren and was very proud of them. I am grateful for the effort he took to stay a part of my daughter's life and attend her major events. My condolences to the family.

“ My heart goes out to Bill's family and friends. I had the privilege to know Bill through swing dancing at Tio's in San Diego. He was a kind gentleman with a great enthusiasm for life. I loved dancing with him as much as hearing about his life. He loved and was proud of his family. He will be missed.
